EUROPEAN SHOOTING CONFEDERATION (ESC)

STATUTES

FOUNDATION

The formation of the European Shooting Confederation was proposed at the 1960 Olympic Games in Rome.

During the 1964 Olympic Games in Tokyo a decision was made to draft a suitable Constitution for the European Shooting Confederation.

With 23 nations represented at the inaugural meeting, the European Shooting Confederation was formed on 18th August 1969 during the European Shooting Championships held at Plzen, Czechoslovakia. This was the direct outcome of the official meeting of the European Shooting Federations and followed three years of intensive preparation and devoted work by a Committee for European Affairs, which the International Shooting Union (UIT) had set up under the leadership of Prof. Gavril Barani, a Vice President of the UIT.

In October 1969 the European Shooting Confederation was recognised by the UIT Executive Committee at its meeting held at Wiesbaden, Germany as the first Continental Organization of the UIT.

1.0 PURPOSE

1.1 The purpose of the European Shooting Confederation (ESC) is to maintain, to strengthen and to develop the sport of shooting in Europe in accordance with the Constitution and the General Regulations of the International Shooting Sport Federation (ISSF - former UIT) and to strengthen the bonds of friendship and good relations among the national Member Federations without any political, religious or racial discrimination.

Moreover, the ESC must directly or indirectly ensure the common interest of the ESC in the ISSF.

1.2 The objects of the ESC are:

1.2.1 to promote the shooting sport in Europe in a spirit of peace, understanding and fair play, without any discriminations on account of politics, gender, religion, race or any other reason,

1.2.2 to maintain good relations with and cooperate with the ISSF for the promotion and development of the shooting sport,

1.2.3 to organize European Championships regularly,

1.2.4 to encourage the promotion of traditional Regional Championships and other major shooting competitions in Europe,

1.2.5 to maintain relations between the national Member Federations in order to promote the development of shooting sport in Europe,

1.2.6 to encourage sponsorships in order to guarantee the economic solidity of the ESC,

1.2.7 to promote the exchange of experience by organizing lectures, debates, conferences or courses in the field of shooting sport in close collaboration and in line with the ISSF,

1.2.8 to promote the knowledge of the shooting sport through mass media,

1.2.9 to award distinctions to those who have contributed to the achievement of the Confederation's purposes.

1.3 In these Statutes the use of the masculine form shall be interpreted also to refer to the feminine.

2.0 HEADQUARTERS

2.1 The Presidium determines the location of the headquarters of the ESC, which is currently located in Lausanne, Switzerland.

2.2 The ESC must be registered in accordance with the laws of the country of headquarters.

2.3 The funds of the ESC must be deposited in a bank as decided by the Presidium.

3.0 MEMBERSHIP

3.1 The ESC is composed of European shooting federations of the nations represented in the European Olympic Committees (EOC). The shooting federation shall be approved by the ESC Presidium as the sole governing body of shooting sports in its country, and be a member of and recognised by its respective National Olympic Committee, which must be a full member of the International Olympic Committee.

3.2 Membership is open to one Federation from each country. Countries with two Member Federations recognised prior to 1999 may retain dual membership, but no new applications for membership can be accepted from more than one federation per country. If two federations represent a country, each federation shall pay half the membership fee.

3.3 The affiliation of non-European federations must be subject to the agreement of the General Assembly.

3.4 Annual membership fees are determined for a period of two years by a majority vote in the General Assembly of the ESC.

The annual membership fee is payable on 1st January. Payment of the fee must be made by 31st March.

3.5 A federation not having paid the annual membership fee or any other amount outstanding by 31st March of the current year will automatically be deprived of all its rights within the ESC, including the right of voting and participation in all official Championships, etc. until the fee has been paid.

For participation in European Championships to be held before the 31st of March, the payment of the membership fee for the previous year will be accepted.

Notification of rights being forfeited will be given by the ESC secretariat to the federation concerned and to the Organizing Committee of the European Championships to be held in the respective year.

3.6 Any federation who has not paid any amount or interest owing by the due date will not be permitted to enter the next championships until the full amount outstanding has been paid.

3.7 The ISSF Code of Ethics must be followed by all members of the ESC, teams, officials and athletes.

3.8 The ISSF Anti-Doping Regulations must be followed by all members of the ESC, teams, officials and athletes.

GUIDELINES FOR TV BROADCASTING AND ADVERTISING

The TV and Advertising Rights of all ESC European Championships, European Cup Finals and other ESC official events (General Assemblies, Congresses, etc.) are the property of the European Shooting Confederation

In order to assist the organizing country's Member Federation some parts of these rights may be granted to the organizing country's Member Federation on the basis of these guidelines.

TV Broadcasting Rights:

As a prerequisite for a Member Federation to apply for the European Championships, the Federation and a local or national TV station should agree that the local or national TV station will supply international signals consisting of pictures and sounds free of charge to the ESC contracted TV stations;

Except for the ESC contracted TV stations, the organizing country is free to make contracts with other TV stations for TV broadcasting rights for the territory or country not included in the contract. In this case, the organizing country divides equally the income from selling TV rights with the ESC.

Advertising rights:

The ESC reserves the right to control sponsor signs at the main entrance of ESC Championship ranges, official scoreboards, official score monitors, target frames and Start (Bib) Numbers.

Advertising for tobacco or alcohol is not allowed.

The site planning and the sizes of the above advertising materials require prior approval of the ESC.

All or part of the available spaces may be contracted to one advertising agency as a package. If an agency is decided upon, the Presidium must transmit the name of the agency and details of the contract to the organizing country's Member Federation twelve (12) months before the Championship or official event.

All other advertising spaces etc. are the property of the organizer.

GUIDELINES FOR MEDIA REPRESENTATIVES

(Press, Photo, Radio, TV and Internet Communication)

These Guidelines shall be used at every European Championships, an event under the auspices of the European Shooting Confederation (ESC).

The purpose of these Guidelines is to provide assistance to the event organizer in the area of Public Relations and specifically to provide consultancy to the event organizer; to define the basic requirements in preparation and organization of the event; to contribute to the image of and positive attitude toward shooting sport; to promote shooting sport and to improve marketing and communications in all activities related to organization of an event.

A Chief of Press Office (CoP) must:

- be a member of the Organizing Committee of the Championship from the beginning of the OC work. The ESC Secretariat must be notified.
 - take care of Public Relations in the preparation period and during the total course of the event
 - get in contact early with the Press Members and act as the main link between the Organizing Committee and the Press Members.
 - The CoP or his/her staff should always be present in the Press Office during the Championship.
 - Guests in the Press Office must be announced to the CoP and may be charged according to a special price list or they may use the facilities free of charge.
1. A service fee of 30 € is payable by each Press Member. An exception is made for the members of the International Sports Press Association (AIPS) and the persons accredited for the event as journalists with their personal Press ID card, who are entitled to use the Press Office free of charge. The Press Members should be entered in the final entry form. Only persons previously accredited as Press Members may use the Press Centre. The service fee entitles him/her to use the facilities specified under 3 and 4.
 2. The Press Members should be offered accommodation at the Official Hotels and have the possibility to use the official transport system.
 3. The Press Members must get accreditation with access to the Press Office and reserved places at the final stands close to the shooters and the awarding ceremony place.

The Press Office should at least be equipped with:

- 20 - 30 or more desks, with separate power connections, the AIPS journalists should have personal desks
- 2 - 4 telephones*
- 1 - 2 fax machines*
- Minimum 2 computers with Internet access*
- 2 printers with WiFi connection
- 5 WLAN Internet connections (password-protected), one only for result service and one for the media with drop box
- A mailbox for each Press Member
- A place, or a special room with double set telephones for interviews of the medallists etc*
- White copying paper, pencils etc.

* May have additional price-lists

Each Press Member must be provided with the following material:

Before the competition:

- A News Bulletin with the latest info of the number of participants and countries
- Entry list with the shooters EC, WC, WCH and Olympic merits
- Up-to-date lists of Records and Quota place winners
- Competition schedule
- Promotional material about the country and the town of the organizer, and about ESC

During the competition:

- Starting lists
- Info material about shooters
- Preliminary results after each relay
- Finals start list
- Official result list
- Any information from the Organizing Committee regarding changes in the program etc
- Up-to-date lists of New and equalled Records
- Up-to-date list of Quota place winners
- Medal standings

At the shooting range the organizer has to prepare a room for press conferences and a “kiss and cry” place for competitors.

After the competition

- Official Results Book containing:
- Results Summary of all the Events
- New and Equalled Records
- Medal Standings
- ESC Officials and Judges
- Organizing Committee
- Number of entries by nations

Before and after the event, press conferences should be organized in order to introduce the most eminent shooters, the most important results, and the most notable persons of the ESC, ISSF and the Organizing Committee etc.

 „Kiss and cry place“ is an area or place covered with the background wall/walls. That wall is covered with the logos of the main sponsors and it is the place where the first interviews are made at the range. That place is also called mixed zone. In all other sports this is the second place where interviews are only allowed to do at venues, the other is of course the press conference room. This mixed zone area can be build up immediately after the final just beside or in front of the final range and all finalists or at least medalists should be guided to go there and be interviewed there. Unfortunately this kind of mixed zone/areas are not understood to use in shooting. In other sports athletes are allowed to be interviewed only in this area while it is a such good possibility to get publicity to sponsors. At the venues the walking of photographers and journalists should be limited and athletes (finalists) also should be guided to go to the mixed zone.

- 2.1 Only ESC Member Federations are entitled to participate in the European Championships. Other Member Federations of the International Shooting Sport Federation (ISSF) may only participate in European Championships with a special permission given by the Presidium of the ESC.
- 2.2 All National Shooting Federations participating in the European Championships or other competitions acknowledged or supervised by the ESC must observe these rules.

3.0 ORGANIZING, FREQUENCY AND HOST OBLIGATIONS OF OFFICIAL ESC COMPETITIONS

- 3.1 The host countries and the programme of the European Championships must be approved by the ESC General Assembly (GA) based upon proposals, and recommendations of the ESC Presidium.
- 3.2 The FREQUENCY of the European Championships must be as follows:
 - 3.2.1 Every two years in 50m/300m Rifle, 50m/25m Pistol and 50m Running Target events, individual and teams, for men and women.
 - 3.2.2 Every year in all 10m events and in Trap, Double Trap and Skeet for seniors and juniors, men and women, both individual and team competitions. Every year in the 50m Rifle, 50/25m Pistol events for juniors, men and women and 50m Running Target events for junior's men, both individual and team competition, except in the year when a World Championship is held.
- 3.3 A Member Federation desiring to organize a European Championship must submit an application to the ESC Secretariat at least three months in advance of the General Assembly at which the organizing Federation will be chosen. The ESC Presidium must inform the National Member Federations of the applicant(s) two months in advance of the General Assembly.

The HOST APPLICATION must include the following:

- 3.3.1 An official statement from the appropriate government agency or National Olympic Committee, indicating the support to be given to the organization of the Championships.
- 3.3.2 A statement that all the requirements of the ESC Statutes, these General Regulations and the ISSF Rules will be strictly observed.

The Organizing Committee is not obliged to organize transfers to and from hotels, which are not offered in the programme.

- 3.4 If for any reason a chosen host country may not be able to organize the Championships or part(s) of the proposed events, another country or countries may be approved as the organizer(s) of the whole Championships or part(s) of it. In this case the ESC Presidium must take the decision.

- 3.4.1 Withdrawal is only possible with the approval of the ESC Presidium. Unapproved withdrawal is subject to assessment of a fine or the suspension of ESC membership, or the suspension of participation at ESC/ISSF supervised competitions/championships (European Championships – European Cups) for a certain time decided by the ESC Presidium.

- 3.4.2 If no host application is received, or if the Member Federation selected to organize the Championship withdraws, the ESC Presidium may select any Member Federation as organizer. Or, if no single Member Federation can be found, select Federations that offer to organize the Championship in separate groups of events. If this is not possible, the ESC General Assembly or - in the middle of the time between ESC General Assembly's - the ESC Presidium will be authorised to cancel this particular championship.
