

Annual Report 2016

A meeting from the 300m European Cup Subcommittee was held in Zagreb, Croatia, during the European Cup Final.

Ten nations were present during the General Assembly and the Chairman informed them about the news and all changes, including the new time schedule for 2017. The chairman was asking the nations about the approval, and all approved the changes.

Competitions:

Aarhus (DEN): The competition took place from the 9.-13.5.2016. The competition was very well organized.

Zagreb (CRO): The competition took place from the 30.5.-3.06.2016. The competition was very well organized.

Lahti (FIN): The competition took place from the 30.6.-3.07.2016. The competition in combination 25m/300m was very well organized.

FINAL: This took place from the 27.-30.9.2016 in Zagreb (CRO). The competition was very well organized. The ESC technical delegate Gabriele Hartmann will send his report to the ESC office at the end of the competition.

Meeting from the Sub Committee:

The definite form of the 300m European Cup Rules changes and the calendar 2017 were adopted.

General Meeting with the coaches present:

The chairman briefly referred to the competitions in 2016. The number of participants was lower than last year.

No World or European Championships took place because of the Olympic Games.
