

Guidelines for HONORARY MEMBERSHIP

Honorary Membership is the highest distinction of the ESC, reserved for a very limited number of individuals, and the nomination requires extraordinary qualifications and the individual must have rendered exceptional services to the European Shooting Confederation.

“ESC Statutes 6.8:

ELECTION OF THE HONORARY MEMBERS

The rare distinction of the Honorary Membership (with or without an honorary title) may be granted to individuals for outstanding services to the ESC.

Honorary membership will be decided by the General Assembly on recommendation of the Presidium (see art. 7.2.7).”

Criteria for granting the ESC Honorary Membership

The main criteria for granting individual Honorary Membership are personal and moral qualities, exceptional sustained contribution and loyalty to the ESC, continuous dedication to the shooting sport in Europe.

However, the period of service within the ESC Presidium and/or as an ESC Committee member also counts and one of the following should be applied as a minimum period:

- a. 8 years as a President
- b. 12 years as a Presidium Member
- c. 20 years in total as a Presidium and/or Committee Member

Procedure of granting the ESC Honorary Membership

1. Nominations are to be made by Member Federations and/or the Presidium
2. The Presidium must examine nominations and make recommendations to the General Assembly.
3. The decision of the Presidium to recommend an individual for Honorary Membership must be taken by the majority of 2/3 votes, with a minimum of 7 votes in favor.
4. Upon the recommendation of the ESC Presidium an Honorary Member is to be elected by the General Assembly.

Special Provisions

1. As a token of the Honorary Membership the individual will be granted the “ESC Honorary Pin” and a Diploma.
2. Honorary Members should be invited to the ESC General Assemblies at the expense of the ESC.
