

B Duty Sheet I – Rifle, Pistol & Running Target European Championships

“Duty Sheet I” applicable for all Rifle, Pistol and Running Target European Championships.

B.1 Duties of SIUS

Range / Material

- B.1.1 To provide, set up (and later dismantle) the electronic targets and to run all the necessary equipment during the European Shooting Championships up to the following maximum number of lanes, if not already in existence:
- | | |
|---------------------|------------|
| 10m: | 90 targets |
| 10m Running Target: | 4 targets |
| 25m: | 40 targets |
| 50m: | 70 targets |
| 300m: | 30 targets |
- B.1.2 To be liable for transportation for the provided material including transport insurance.
- B.1.3 To manage installation, test and later dismantling of lent equipment.
- B.1.4 To be liable for wear material, rubber, paper rolls and plastic target cards for all provided targets.
- B.1.5 To provide, install and dismantle computers, printers, cables for the complete outfit of all 10m, 25m, 50m and 300m ranges.
- B.1.6 To provide one VGA-Projector per range, to show intermediate rankings.

Software

- B.1.7 To provide start lists, based on the entries (downloaded from the ISSF accreditation web site and as per latest changes reported by the organizers accreditation), but supported by the technical delegate or competition manager, because of detailed schedule and usage of the ranges etc.
- B.1.8 To provide up to date SIUS/ISSF software, including all rule changes for all ISSF events.
- B.1.9 To provide results on the web-site “results.sius.com” for each event. SIUS additionally provides pdf documents in printed and electronic form for the organizer and sends the official xml format to the ISSF for each event.

Manpower

- B.1.10 To be liable for a range inspection by one technician.
- B.1.11 To provide an adequate number of competition technicians during training and championships. (Normally one SIUS hardware technician and one SIUS competition officer per competition venue in simultaneous use)
- B.1.12 To supervise the maintenance of SIUS equipment owned by the organizer and to ensure its full functionality during the European Championship.

B.2 Duties of the organizing federation, thereafter called “Organizer”

Range / Material

- B.2.1 Support the transport of shipped material, especially handling with clearance and storage before and after the competition.
- B.2.2 To pay the transportation cost of the lent material as per outlay.
- B.2.3 Insure the value of the rented material against theft and damage during the competition.
- B.2.4 Prepare the range including any installed SIUS targets, according to the SIUS advice before arrival of the SIUS technicians. (Maintenance, wear material for the own targets, as well as bullet traps and backing targets for all targets, are to be provided by the organizer).
- B.2.5 Provide one screen (2m x 1,6m) for ranking display per range or adequate PC's and TV screens to present the results to the audience.
- B.2.6 Provide at least one Windows PC (English setup) per competition range, including dual VGA-Ports, to drive the ranking system and optionally one of the VGA-Scoreboards.
- B.2.7 To prepare the range(s) according to the ISSF Technical Rules. The organizer is responsible to maintain the existing electronic targets and to order repair or replacement of broken parts in advance.
- B.2.8 To manage the ISSF supervised test of the equipment (ISSF Rule 6.3.2.8)

Manpower

- B.2.9 Keep two reliable technically skilled people (native language and English speaking) at SIUS's disposal, to give assistance during installation, dismantling and maintenance work, before, during and after the competition.
- B.2.10 Keep one software engineer (good IT skilled) at SIUS's disposal, to assist operation of the computer during the championships.
- B.2.11 Provide an IT specialist knowing the local installation, to ensure high quality network and internet connection. Accurate download and upload rates are mandatory for international competitions.
- B.2.12 Provide range officers according to the ISSF Technical Rules and operators for the machinery.

Others

- B.2.13 Pay to SIUS the fee agreed by the ESC Presidium for the following European Championships:

	Services	Rental Maximum
ECH 25/50m, rifle and pistol, all categories	EURO 20'000	Euro 5'000
ECH 25/50m, rifle pistol, junior categories	EURO 15'000	Euro 5'000
ECH 300m, rifle	EURO 14'000	Euro 5'000
ECH 10m, rifle, pistol and running target	EURO 15'000	Euro 5'000
Transportation of rental material		as per actual expenses invoice

If the number of SIUS competition technicians can be reduced because the Organizer can support the team by a reliable certified person (License A for SIUS Competitions), the service fee will be reduced by 2000 Euro.

- B.2.14 Provide airline tickets (including range inspection day), free local transportation, accommodation (single rooms) and meal tickets before (installation phase), during and after (dismantling phase) the championships for each SIUS technician. It should be taken in consideration that dinner can be in late evening hours because of the competition schedule and maintenance work after the shooting finished.
- B.2.15 In case of non-compliance of duties by an Organizer, SIUS is allowed to charge the Organizer as follows:

Missing support for mantling and dismantling, per day per person (regarding to B.2.11)	EURO 400
Missing engineer during the competition, per day (regarding to B.2.11, B.2.12, B.2.13)	EURO 400
Rental costs for missing screens for projection of results	EURO 400
Missing accommodation, per day per SIUS technician	EURO 150
Unprovided meals, per day per SIUS technician	EURO 60
Costs for rental car, if transportation is missing	as per actual expenses invoice
Traveling expenses	as per actual expenses invoice

- B.2.16 In case of non-compliance of duties by SIUS, the Organizer is allowed to charge SIUS as follows:

Competition had to be rescheduled to another day because of SIUS fault.	EURO 1000
---	-----------

- B.2.17 Nominate SIUS as "Official Sponsor of the European Championship".

- B.2.18 Provide advertising possibilities up to an amount of 5'000 Euro free of charge. As minimum an exhibition stand, advertising space for two advertisement of 4m x 1m per range, advertisement in mailings, and advertisement behind the athletes during the medal ceremony is given. The organizer takes notice, that the very low services and rental fees are only possible, because SIUS AG reduced the fees in B2.13 by more than 20'000 EURO compared to the real costs.

- B.2.19 Disagreements between the organizer and SIUS of this Duty Sheet must be put before the ESC President / Vice President for negotiations between the parties.

C Duty Sheet II – Shotgun European Championships

“Duty Sheet II” applicable for all Shotgun European Championships.

C.1 Duties of SIUS

- C.1.1 To provide start lists, based on the entries (downloaded from the ISSF accreditation web site and as per latest changes reported by the organizers accreditation) but supported by the technical delegate or competition manager, because of detailed schedule and usage of the ranges, schemas, etc.
- C.1.2 To provide up to date SIUS/ISSF software, including all rule changes for all ISSF events.
- C.1.3 To provide intermediate rankings on demand (update interval depends on the available installation).
- C.1.4 To provide results on the web-site “results.sius.com” for each event. SIUS additionally provides pdf documents in printed and electronic form for the organizer and sends the official xml format to the ISSF for each event.
- C.1.5 If possible, SIUS will provide interfaces to read shot by shot information in electronic form. However, if no interface exists to the installed shotgun hardware, manual scoring is possible only.
- C.1.6 To provide VGA-signal showing start lists, intermediates and results.
- C.1.7 To provide one competition officer during pre event training and the championships.

C.2 Duties of the organizer

Range / Material

- C.2.1 To provide a fully functional shotgun range, fulfilling all technical needs and ISSF rules, to hold the competitions.
- C.2.2 To provide necessary space for a two person indoor office (table, chairs, power plugs, internet access and up to date laser printer).
- C.2.3 To provide accurate Windows PC or Laptop (English setup) ready, to install the ranking software.

Manpower

- C.2.4 To pay to SIUS the fee decided by the ESC Presidium

Competition officer for ECH shotgun	EURO 2'500
-------------------------------------	------------

- C.2.5 Provide airline tickets (including range inspection day), free local transportation, accommodation (single rooms) and meal tickets during the championships for the SIUS technician. It should be taken in consideration that dinner can be in late evening hours, because of the competition schedule.
- C.2.6 Keep one software engineer (good IT skilled) at SIUS's disposal, to assist operation of the computer during the championships.
- C.2.7 Provide an IT specialist knowing the local installation, to ensure high quality network and internet connection. Accurate download and upload rates are mandatory for international competitions.

Others

- C.2.8 In case of non-compliance of duties by an Organizer, SIUS is allowed to charge the Organizer as follows:

Missing engineer during the competition, per day (regarding C.2.6)	EURO 400
Missing accommodation, per day per SIUS technician	EURO 150
Unprovided meals, per day per SIUS technician	EURO 60
Costs for rental car, if transportation is missing	as per actual expenses invoice
Traveling expenses

- C.2.9 In case of non-compliance of duties by SIUS, the Organizer is allowed to charge SIUS as follows:

Competition had to be rescheduled to another day because of SIUS fault.	EURO 1000
---	-----------

- C.2.10 Nominate SIUS as “Official Sponsor of the European Championship”.
- C.2.11 Provide advertising possibilities up to an amount of 5'000 Euro free of charge. As minimum an exhibition stand, advertising space for two advertisement of 4m x 1m per range, advertisement in mailings, and advertisement behind the athletes during the medal ceremony is given. The organizer takes notice, that the very low services and rental fees are only possible, because SIUS AG reduced the fees in C2.4 by more than 10'000 EURO compared to the real costs.
- C.2.12 Disagreements between the organizer and SIUS of this Duty Sheet must be put before the ESC President / Vice President for negotiations between the parties.